

Oklahoma Child Support Guidelines Quadrennial Review

In accordance with 45 C.F.R. § 302.56(e), Oklahoma reviews its child support guidelines at least once every four years to ensure that application of the guidelines results in appropriate child support order amounts.

Current child support guidelines effective date	May 1, 2026
Next quadrennial review date	May 1, 2030
Reviewing body	Oklahoma Senate Judiciary Committee

Reviewing Body

The reviewing body for the 2026 quadrennial review is the Oklahoma Senate Judiciary Committee.

Membership

Role	Member
Chair	Senator Brent Howard
Vice Chair	Senator Todd Gollihare

Member	Senator Mary B. Boren
Member	Senator Michael Brooks
Member	Senator Darcy Jech
Member	Senator Paul Rosino
Member	Senator Shane Jett
Member	Senator Lisa Standridge

[\[View the Oklahoma Senate Judiciary Committee page\]](#)

Reports, Materials, and Public Meeting Information

The following materials are available for the 2026 quadrennial review of Oklahoma's child support guidelines.

Material	Description
Senate Judiciary Meeting Notice and Agenda	Notice and agenda for the May 4, 2026 Senate Judiciary meeting, including review of the Child Support Guidelines and Schedule of Basic Child Support Obligations pursuant to 43 O.S. § 119.1.
Quadrennial Guidelines	Oklahoma Human Services Child Support Services presentation regarding child support data, cost of

Back to Top ^

Review Presentation	raising a child, labor market data, income data, and case analysis.
Senate Meeting Video	Public video recording of the May 4, 2026 Senate Judiciary proceeding regarding the child support guidelines review.

[\[View the Senate meeting video\]](#)

Public Comment was in person and by text during the hearing before the legislature.

One of the Senator’s constituents asked questions and made statements on the guidelines during the review hearing.

Public access to Oklahoma Child Support Guidelines

Last Modified on Jul 21, 2026